TIBETAN PARLIAMENTARY SECRETARIAT

Mr.Liu Xiaobo,
2010 Nobel Peace Laureate.

13.07.17

Respected Liu Xiaobo,

Certain sadness befalls when any distressing news of great noble laureates and intellectuals like you circulates.

You, who had long struggled for the welfare of the Chinese people and are imprisoned for writing Charter 08, embody the hope for Chinese democracy.

You, a prisoner of conscience, who had raised voices for the subdued and fought for their freedom and basic human rights, won the Nobel Peace Prize and the hearts of millions more.

Ever since your imprisonment in 2008, your health has taken a major toll and has been deteriorating ever since : despite the numerous appeals for your immediate medical treatments abroad from Nobel laureate His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama and other Noble Laureates as well as many world leaders and the thousands of human rights activists around the world.

As your supporters all over the globe pray for your health, I too, on behalf of all the Tibetans offer my sincerest prayer for your speedy recovery and well-being.

May the tide of change brought about by your vision be visualized soon in China!

With my heartfelt prayers,

Yours sincerely,

Ven Khenpo Sonam Tenphel
Speaker
Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile.
