TIBETAN PARLIAMENT-IN-EXILE

TPiE|24|2018|26233

Hon. Tsai Ing-wen,
President,
Republic of China (Taiwan)

08.02.2018

Your Excellency,

I am extremely sad to have learnt about the earthquake that shook your nation and wrecked havoc on numerous lives on Feb 6, 2018, especially at the coastal city of Hualien.

On behalf of Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile, I would like to convey our deepest condolences to those affected and their family members, who are undergoing traumatic experiences.

We can understand the pain and the concern that you and the people of your nation must feel as the overwhelming sadness over the loss of lives and the destruction of properties are wrought upon by this tragedy. As the situation continues to unfold, we hope you and your people will find solace and comfort in knowing that the Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile and the Tibetan people stand in solidarity with you all at this time of trial and grief.

We pray for speedy recovery of the injured and the affected from the effects of this calamity.

Yours truly,

Khenpo Sonam Tenphel,
Speaker,
Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile
