TIBETAN PARLIAMENT-IN-EXILE

TPIE/2019/26904

Hon. Scott Morrison,
Prime Minister of Australia

Date: May 21, 2019

Your Excellency,

I, on behalf of Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile and the Tibetans in and outside Tibet, would like to extend my heartiest congratulation to you and your party for the victory in the Australian Coalition Party's in Australia's Parliamentary elections.

I wish you great success in fulfilling the hopes and aspirations of your people as you assume your new responsibilities.

Taking this opportunity, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to the Australian Government and the people for your exemplary support in hosting former Tibetan political prisoners from Tibet and for showing concern to our cause of Tibet.

I look forward to your continued support regarding the worsening human rights situation inside Tibet so as to resolve the issue of Tibet soon.

I extend my prayers and best wishes to you and your administration for all the future endeavors.

With assurances of my highest regards,

Pema Jungney(Mr.)
Speaker
Tibetan Parliament-in Exile
